

ROYAL HOME DINING

This experience is one of the most enchanting to foreigners and locals alike. Living among us as the erstwhile Royal Families of more than 500 princely states that composed India before the announcement of the Indian constitution in 1947. These private dining experiences bring you to dine with Kings, Queens, princesses, nobles and their families. Sometimes in their homes, and sometimes out in a restaurant. But through priceless conversations you will discover their stories, and they will discover yours. A highly recommended experience!
